Quotes from Participants

“As a new business owner, this has been such an amazing experience for me. It made me uncomfortable, which forced me to think and grow as a leader.”

“Being able to talk with peers across all sections of business/nonprofit – safe spaces to talk with different points of view matter. It is support, it is thought diversification, it builds bridges and strengthens our workplaces.”

“As I mentor young professionals, these principles are critical to my ability to authentically support their intention or goals to become the best leaders they can become.”
